The Bushari Team

For forward-thinking participants in Boston's flourishing fine residential real estate market, The Bushari Team at Compass celebrates the unequivocal satisfaction of our clients.

With a strong ethical foundation and commitment to exceptional customer service, our team leverages our unparalleled connections, deep market experience, expert negotiating skills and proprietary marketing tools to make selling and buying homes exhilarating, seamless and richly rewarding.

Our Journey

We established Bushari Real Estate in 2008 because we believed that home buyers and sellers deserved a better real estate experience. We built a next-generation real estate company with an acute focus on exceptional customer service and targeted, high-end marketing, growing the company to 45 agents and employees, and completing more than $1 billion in transaction volume. In 2017, we were ranked the fastest-growing, private real estate firm in Massachusetts by Inc. Magazine's "Inc. 5000". In 2018, we decided to continue our journey with Compass.

As The Bushari Team at Compass, we offer the attention of a boutique firm with the marketing and tech prowess of a national brokerage. We continue to set the bar in the luxury real estate market for professionalism, performance and online presence. We specialize in niche marketing, tailoring our approach to each property and individual client.

We believe that intently listening and fully understanding the goals of our buyers and sellers is critical to achieving and exceeding expectations. By leveraging our vast network of high-profile clientele, we maximize our connections to create unique opportunities. We see ourselves as stewards and partners to our clients.

We are at our best when we serve as trusted, ethical advisors who know how to navigate the market, while remaining empathetic, nimble problem solvers who can handle the myriad of details that accompany each and every relationship. We make buying and selling homes exhilarating, seamless and richly rewarding.

We use proprietary algorithms and state-of-the-art advertising techniques to keep our listings in front of active buyers. Digital Marketing

BostonRealEstate.com - The Best Address.

We realized long ago that a great web address and prime online visibility are far more important than the location of a brick-and-mortar office. Today's buyers don't "walk-in", they log-in. That's why we invested in the best address in town - BostonRealEstate.com. If a buyer searches Boston real estate online, they find us. Period.

Our website is a complete real estate resource with a hyper-local focus. Buyers find our website first, spend more time on the site and return more often.

Consumers have changed; they are no longer passive receivers of entertainment and information. The modern consumer interacts, shares opinions and has sophisticated needs that every real estate company must take into account. The Bushari Team is on the cutting edge of these changing tides, and leads the Boston market with its internet presence and marketing approach.

Networking Capabilities

Aided by state-of-the-art Compass technology, we are strategically connected to the market's entire brokerage community.

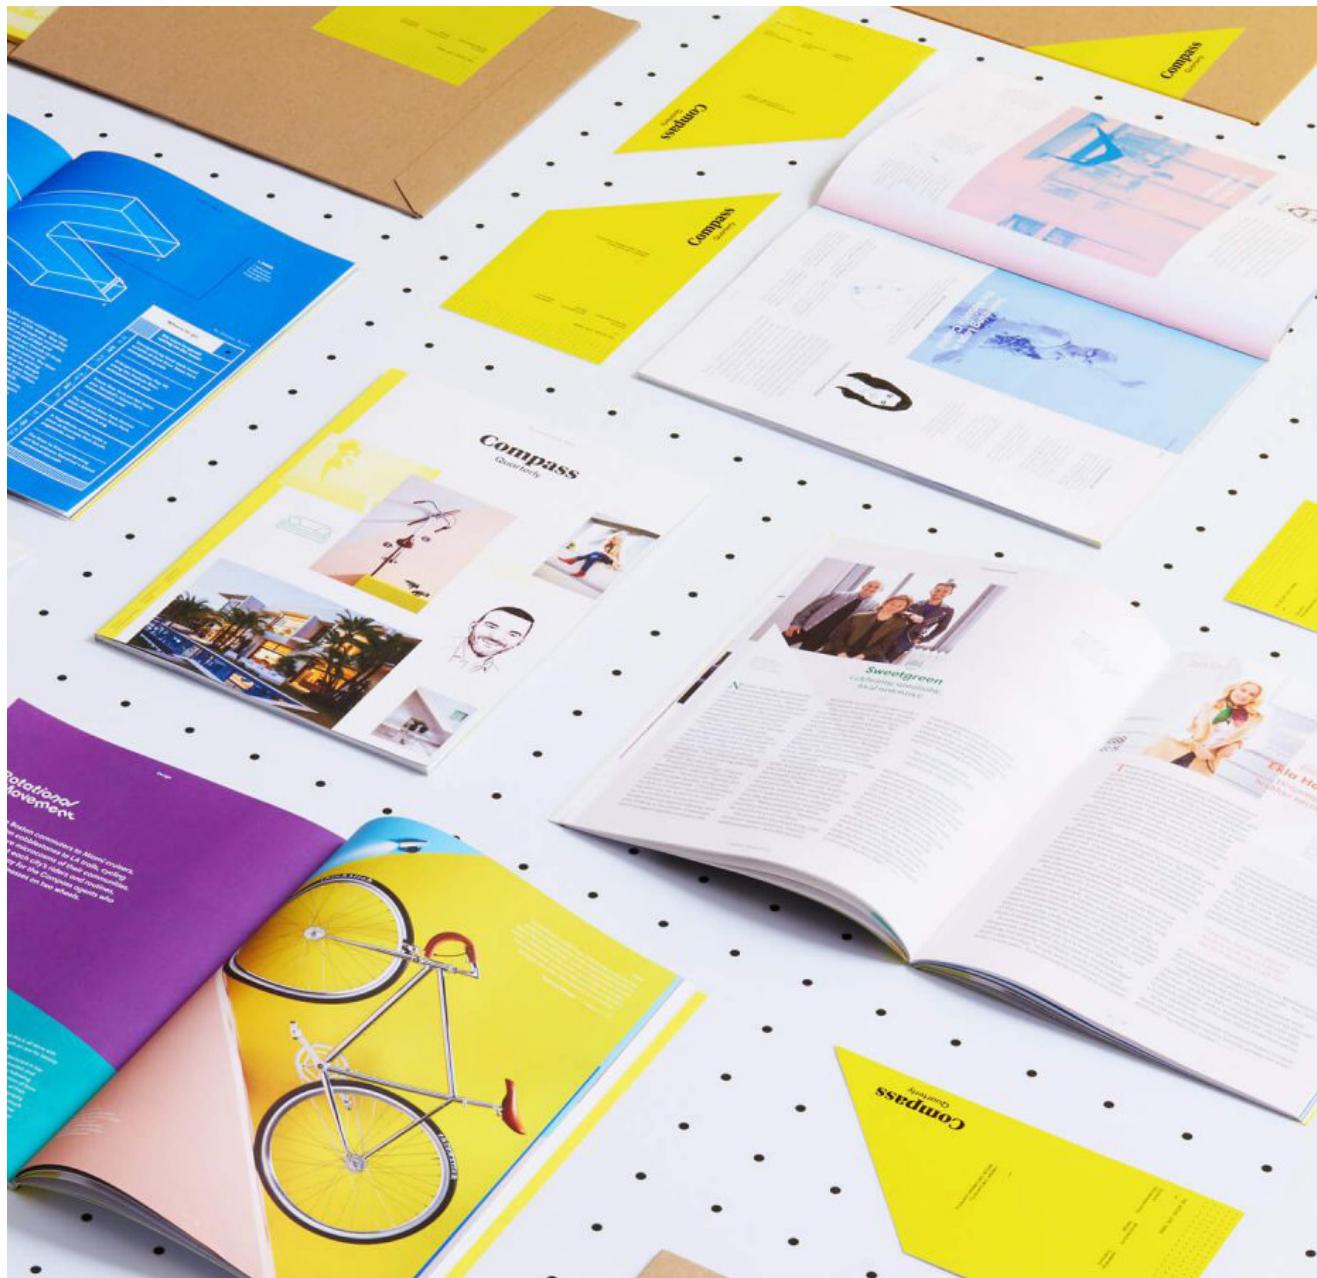

Unprecedented reach

Using the Network tool, we can analyze your property across 350+ parameters to determine similar sold listings, identify the right brokers, and respond to ideal prospective buyers through a series of email campaigns and targeted outreach.

Advertising

Our in-house media team has fostered relationships with key print and digital publications. Based on your buyer profile, we're able to craft an effective, targeted campaign strategy unique to your property.

Compass Coming Soon

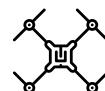

One of the best ways to sell your home quickly and for the highest price is to get a head-start marketing the home before it's time to go on MLS. Compass Coming Soon listings present the perfect opportunity to pre-market properties, both within the Compass internal agent network and to buyers specifically searching the Compass.com website for Coming Soon listings. Pre-marketing listings is a powerful way to build interest and demand, gain more exposure without counting days-on-market, and gather valuable feedback.

Photography

Proponents of powerful imagery, Compass invests in visuals, editors, creative producers, and the industry's most respected photographers to capture your home's finest selling points.

Lifestyle Videography

We portray the essence of luxury in every frame we shoot, creating unforgettable visual stories that sell. Sellers rely on us to capture their trophy property on film in a way that communicates value and creates desire, enhancing the emotions in the buyers' purchase decision and thus, increasing the value of the home.

The price a buyer is willing to pay for your home is often based on his or her emotional connection to the property. Creative videography with a lifestyle perspective allows buyers to not only see themselves living in your home, but to actually feel it.

Floor Plans

Floor plans help prospective buyers visualize themselves and their furniture in a home. A powerful reminder of the home's layout and functionality well after a buyer has visited the property, they are often critical if the buyer is considering renovatiting. Enhanced, 3D floor plans and virtual tours help buyers truly feel a space, espcially if they cannot see the home in person because they are out-of-town or the property is pre-construction.

Print Materials

Every single Compass marketing piece - from multipage brochures to custom mailers to open house handouts - creates a cohesive story around your property and elevates it to luxury status.

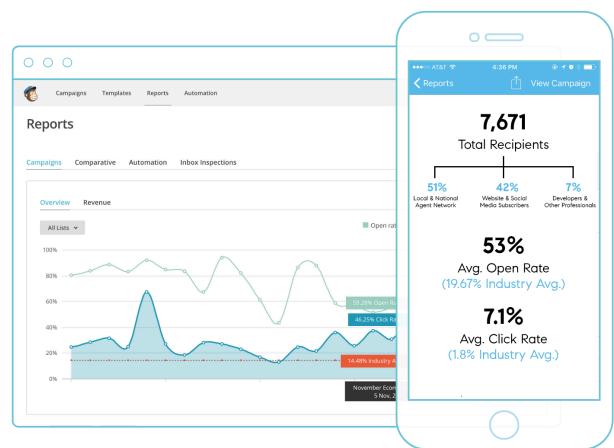

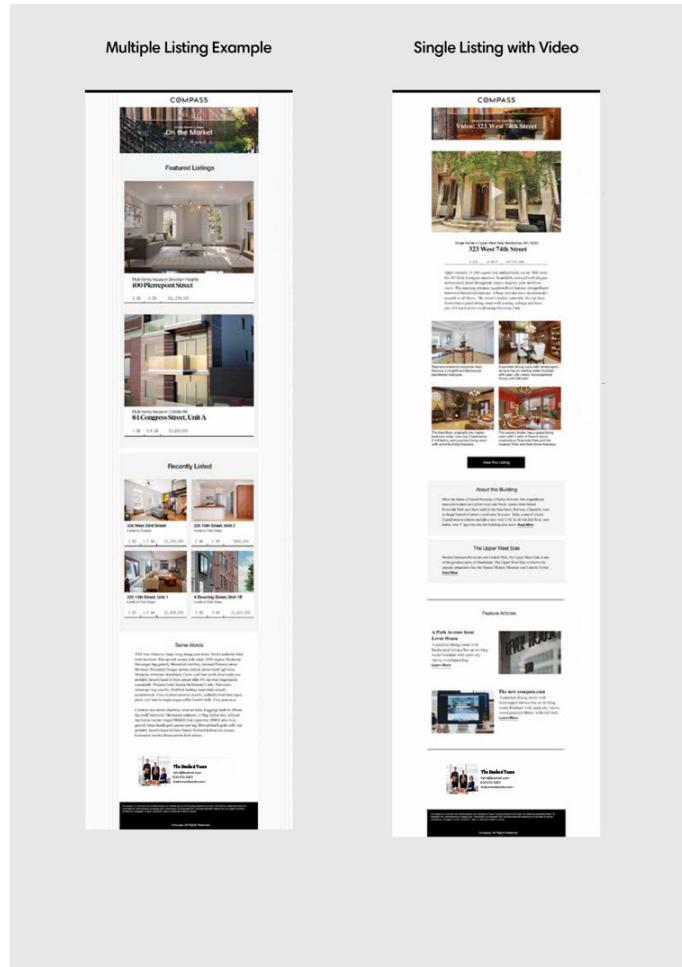

Formats

Email Marketing

We make email on brand and on point. When corresponding with our clients digitally, our message is a refreshing experience in their cluttered Inboxes: organized, responsive, photo-driven.

Our proven templates beautifully announce a portfolio of new listings or offer a comprehensive look at a single home and respond seamlessly to desktop and mobile viewings.

Illuminating and interactive, our reimagined real estate sign engages prospective buyers and surfaces the most resonant information regarding your property.
